Question: What's a Specimen Note? Answer: It is a sample note, usually with a special serial number (usually all-zero serial number such as 000000) and an overprint or perforation with the word "Specimen" in the language of the country of origin. They are usually distributed to banks, treasuries and law enforcement agencies to familiarize them with newly issued currency.

Typically, the adjustments I see on appraisals for basements are more flat rate adjustments. 10k is usually the number I've seen. What stinks is that there are a couple of model types that have below grade space where the builder, I'm sure, was trying to lower the taxes by having it below grade so the county wouldn't count that space in the assessment.
