Hello Emilia, I looked for your email address but was unable to find it, so forgive me for using the comment section to touch base with you. I teach K-4 Spanish in midcoast Maine, and started a blog a few years ago (along with an online company, Mundo de Pepita) with the purpose of sharing what works in my classroom, along with ideas and resources for other elementary teachers.

American-Style Tipping Does Not Apply South of the US Border. Although most people working in the service industry rely on their tips as a part of their income (as they do in the United States), people in Mexico are generally paid less because the cost of living is significantly lower. I have lived in Mexico for several years, and I can say without reservation that Mexicans in general tip much ...
