Followed instructions to no avail We have had the Binatone Luna 1120S (Triple) for two months but I cannot get the Answering Machine to function. I have followed the manual's instruction to set it up, called the number, left a message on the Voice Mail but nothing appears on the Answer Machine. Is the machine faulty or am I doing something wrong?

Answering function may be ON but the number of rings before it answers is set too high. I suggest you try the following Call you phone. Let it ring at least 10 times. If it can act as an answering machine it will pick up the phone and read the welcome message, because most answering machines (the recent ones at least) answer after 10 rings even if answering function is turned OFF.
