1. Why do you think Elie Wiesel begins Night with the story of Moshe the Beadle. I think that he started the story off with Moshe because Moshe is the one who taught Elie the meaning of why he prays. Also because Moshe warned them what was going to happen, but they thought he was just going mad so they didn't believe him.

We are trying to throw a wedding on a very limited budget. With that being said, we found the perfect location. For a Sat or Sun wedding it costs $1500 to rent, a Fri wedding will cost $1300, and a Mon-Thurs event only $700. It's a 55 acre historic property and we are planning on hosting both the wedding and reception here. The property also has enough tables and chairs for us to use for the ...

Night, by Elie Wiesel, is a concise and intense account of the author's experience in Nazi concentration camps during the Holocaust. The memoir provides a good starting point for discussions about the Holocaust, as well as suffering and human rights. The book is short—just 116 pages—but those pages are rich and challenging and they lend themselves to exploration.
