Inquiry-based learning (also enquiry-based learning in British English) is a form of active learning that starts by posing questions, problems or scenarios. It contrasts with traditional education, which generally relies on the teacher presenting facts and his or her knowledge about the subject. Inquiry-based Learning is often assisted by a facilitator rather than a lecturer.

Teleology or finality is a reason or explanation for something as a function of its end, purpose, or goal. It is derived from two Greek words: telos (end, goal, purpose) and logos (reason, explanation). A purpose that is imposed by a human use, such as that of a fork, is called extrinsic. Natural teleology, common in classical philosophy but controversial today, contends that natural entities ...

According to the documentary short Evolution vs. God, Darwinism is a leap of faith that falls far short of Creationism in explaining the mysteries of our existence. The film, which could have presented a fascinating open debate on a crucial subject, quickly devolves into a shallow-minded "gotcha" exercise.. Throughout the course of the film, we're given flashes of rapidly edited interview ...

Chapter A-5 What is a situation (body, language,)? It is time to ask: What are situations? Why do they imply further steps? What is the link between situations, the body, and language, such that words come to us to say in situations? And, how do just the right words come — the ones that might make the situational difference we need?. What is a situation?

A Defence Of Paradise-Engineering. Brave New World (1932) is one of the most bewitching and insidious works of literature ever written.. An exaggeration? Tragically, no. Brave New World has come to serve as the false symbol for any regime of universal happiness.. For sure, Huxley was writing a satirical piece of fiction, not scientific prophecy.

For long-term success in school, business and life, learning HOW to think is far more important than learning WHAT to think.. Yet rather than serve as the core of any education worthy of a rational human being, we have relegated the teaching of logic, argument analysis and critical reasoning to specialty courses in universities that reach too few students, too late in their education.
