And why your grandparents had to give your mom the "birds and the bees" speech earlier than intended. Several commenters had mentioned the original Batman show as a likely point of origin for "Jingle Bells, Batman Smells," but as far as I can tell the Batmanized version never made it onto the show. Rob Weir got back to me, and it turns out he'd had sort of a break in the case: this clipping ...

Ask even casual fans to describe Batman and one of his main characteristics that'll likely be brought up is his dedication to abstaining from killing anyone. It's a rule that several of the most well-known heroes have implemented, including Superman and Spider-Man. So many situations these characters encounter would be easier if they broke that rule, but as Peter Parker's motto goes, "with ...
