It wasn't so much answering 115 questions as the level of business math for the job and answers to HR questions that I didn't feel there were standout right and wrong answers. This has been a very different work search this time around....while the days of "help wanted" window signage has been long gone, this time has been really frustrating with no human contacts, too much SEO keyword ridiculousness, etc...anyway, I'm just rolling with the changes and making the best/most of it.
